DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This brick building is fairly plain in design, ornamented only by a simple corbeled brick cornice. On the upper story are three windows with segmental arches above, and on the first story are four doors and a window, also under segmental arches. Although appearing to be a fairly small building from the front, it is several bays deep and of relatively long and narrow proportions. The building is similar in its design and simplicity to the barber shop next door, 313 Gay Street.
